

The Rochester Area Mennonite Fellowship Covenant (2002)

We, the Rochester Area Mennonite Fellowship, rejoice that God has been with us thus far and continues to work within us.

We affirm our place within the traditions of the Mennonite Church. We acknowledge the different backgrounds and experiences each of us brings into this fellowship. We accept our responsibility to seek the Lord's will for our lives and to live according to the scriptural light we have received personally and through fellowship with each other.

We covenant together to increase our understanding of God, by worship, meditation, prayer, Bible study, and Christian fellowship; and to learn what it means to love God with our whole being.

We covenant together to love each other with Christian love; to help each other discover the fullest expression of life by affirming and supporting, by giving and receiving counsel concerning an interdependent life of Christian stewardship, and by dealing with conflicts in the manner prescribed by Christ.

We covenant together to extend this healing relationship of Christian love to those not of this fellowship.

May God continue to help us on our collective journey.
